Dear Mrs. Manley:

Am sending you one ump Saturday and one Sunday. I'll either send the shoes to Trenton or give them to Curry. Price is $15 and you can send me a check.

I'll see what I can do on the date. Did you give them to Bill Leuschner also? I'll book you at Chester on one of them. Where are you June 8th? I can play you here that date, as the Baltimore game we have scheduled will be played at Phibe Park June 13th.

Cockrill has been overpaid $10. He gets $20 for double-headers, and $10 for single games. If I get the money from him, I'll send it to you, otherwise I'll send him to Newark to work, and you can deduct it from what he is supposed to get.

Regarding Watkins, I'll send what he owes you, as soon as I get together with him. The fare I think we should pay, but it should only be $5 at the most, so I'll probably charge him $5, and then refund you the balance.

How do you arrive at his $1.00 deduction for income tax (with-holding) purposes? It seems very low to me, although I don't know how many dependents he has. Let me know about this at once.

Sincerely,
E. J. Felt
